- Ran a content calendar and responded to followers' comments to improve later posts
- Led three awareness sessions in school

RESEARCH & PURSUITS

Extended Essay, Business Management
Independent Researcher, 3,997 words

May 2026 - Aug 2026
The Cathedral and John Connon School

- Research question: To what extent has Zomato's expansion of its loyalty programme (Zomato Gold) contributed to the increase in average monthly transacting customers (MTC) and profitability between FY2023 and FY2025?
- Analysed Zomato's FY2023-FY2025 annual reports and investor presentations, cross-checked against equity research (ICICI Securities, Kotak Institutional Equities) and business press
- Applied Hax's Delta Model, Dick and Basu's loyalty matrix, the Customer Equity Framework, ratio analysis and linear regression
- Found a strong positive correlation between active Gold members and food delivery adjusted EBITDA ($R^2 = 0.9945$) and MTC ($R^2 = 0.9686$), and concluded that much of the growth reflected "spurious loyalty" rather than brand affinity
